

Accessible Heritage: Enhancing accessibility to archaeological sites

Cynthia Dunning Thierstein

Monique H. van den Dries

Camille Aeschimann

Setareh Ebrahimiabareghi

Contents

- Foreword
Céline Witschard
- Introduction:
Accessible Heritage: Enhancing accessibility to archaeological sites
Cynthia Dunning Thierstein, Monique H. van den Dries, Camille Aeschimann, Setareh Ebrahimiabareghi
- Chapter One
 1. Inclusive Access, redefining Accessibility for Archaeological Sites
Frédéric Reichhart
 2. From taboo to key factor for sustainable management. Accessibility to open-air archaeological sites as a multi-scale and multi-dimensional goal
Maria Luisa Germanà
 3. Assessing Governance for Sustainable and Inclusive Tourism in National Parks: A Methodological Approach
Maria-José Aguilar-Carrasco, Eric Gielen, Maria Vallés-Planells, Francisco Galianab
 4. Assessing accessibility to archaeological sites:
indicators
Miquel Àngel Salvà Cantarellas
 5. World Heritage for all? Assessing accessibility ambitions in nominations for cultural World Heritage sites
Monique H. van den Dries
- Chapter Two

6. Guidelines for the implementation of inclusive projects in cultural places. The example of the Laténium (canton of Neuchâtel, Switzerland)
Daniel Dall'Agnolo
 7. Adaptability as an approach to inclusion—
Examples from Augusta Raurica
Jessica Meier
 8. Improved access? Presentation and Accessibility in the LVR-Archaeological Park Xanten / LVR-RömerMuseum
Stephan Engelhard
 9. Physical accessibility of ancient buildings—the case of the amphitheatre in Pula
Đeni Gobić-Bravar, Darko Komšo
 10. Composing a patchwork of effective actions for an inclusive experience in the Archaeological Park of Paestum and Velia
Antonella Manzo, Mariajosè Luongo, Maria Boffa, Francesco Scelza
 11. “Heritage for All” - A message from Tyre World Heritage Site
Maya Hmeidan, Assaad Seif
 12. Inclusive art & archaeology projects in Japan: multisensory exploration and the significance of visually impaired people's participation in cultural heritage
Sahoko Aki, Ilona Bausch
 13. Accessible Heritage, Inclusive Territory: a method to codesign accessible and inclusive initiatives within Outdoor Heritage sites
Marta Pucciarelli
- Easy-To-Read Abstracts